

Symposium:

Current Issues in Australian Architecture and Urban Planning im Berliner Rathaus

Eine Begleitveranstaltung zur Ausstellung "Wohnraum Moderne_Australische Architektur" im Rahmen der Asien-Pazifik-Wochen Berlin, Urban Sustainability Conference (USC), Building Technologies

13. September 2007: 10:00 – 17:00 Uhr

Ort: Berliner Rathaus, Rathausstraße 15, 10178 Berlin

©Turner + Associates Architects, Silkwood, Surry Hills, New South Wales, 2006

Vorträge von führenden australischen Architekten und Architekturexperten zu öffentlichen und privaten Räumen, standortspezifischer Architektur, alternativen Energiequellen und wieder verwertbaren natürlichen Ressourcen und den Besonderheiten in Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane, Perth und Tasmanien

In englischer Sprache

10:00 Terroir (Gerard Reinmuth and Richard Blythe, Prof. of Architecture and Head of RMIT)
Between preservation of identified wilderness places and the economic enticement to develop tourism infrastructure in Tasmania

10:45 Fender Katsalidis Architects (Karl Fender)
Sustainability and prevention of urban sprawl in Melbourne

11:30 Turner Associates (Nicolas Perren)
The Minimal Invasive Architecture

12:15 McBride Charles Ryan (Drew Williamson)
Alternative visions for urban sustainability

PAUSE

14:00 Andresen O'Gorman (Brit Andresen, Prof. of Architecture at University of Queensland)
Landscape-Building Relationships - Potentials for integration with the landscape

14:45 Donaldson and Warn, Architects (Geoff Warn, Prof. of Architecture at Curtin University)
South East Asia's influence on Western Australian city's identity and the nature of its residential suburbs

15:30 IPH Architects (Adrian Iredale)
Sustainable design in social housing on different contexts, social conditions and cultures

16:15 Lippmann Associates (Ed Lippmann)
Large scale urban projects in Sydney and alternatives to conventional building technologies against the backdrop of 70% carbon reduction

Die Teilnahme ist kostenlos!

Bitte melden Sie sich formlos an bei harpering@apforum.com für "Australia Conference 13.09."

Pressekontakt: Katrin Konrad, pr@daz.de, Tel. 030- 27 87 99 28